The D. Appu Rau Prize, 1936-37.

A prize of the value of Rs. 50 will be awarded by the University Council for the best essay written in English on the following subject :—

"Co-operative Marketing in India".

1. Students of the University of Mysore or its graduates who have taken their degree not earlier than 1931, are eligible to compete for the prize, but no one who has already won it may compete again.

2. Each candidate for the prize should state generally in an introductory note and specifically in foot-notes, the extent to which he has relied upon different sources of information and the portion which he claims as his original work.

3. The essay should have a motto instead of the writer's name and should be accompanied by a sealed cover containing the name of the candidate, the class and college in which he is studying and the degree examination, if any, he has passed and the year of passing the same, his post office address and a declaration that the essay sent in by him is his own bona-fide composition.

4. The essay should be forwarded to the Registrar, University of Mysore, so as to reach him on or before the 1st December 1936.

By Order,
V. GOPALASWAMI AIENGAR,
Registrar.
